RULES OF THE "WARSAW BEER FESTIVAL" FAIR
(15-17 October 2026)

§ 1 General provisions

1. The organiser of the Fair is the Association for Polish Craftsmanship Wolny Kraft, ul. Korotyńskiego 48, m. 109, 02-123 Warsaw, NIP/VAT PL 70 10 999 434, REGON: 387245894 (hereinafter referred to as the "Organiser").
2. The Regulations apply to the Warsaw Beer Festival (hereinafter referred to as the "Fair"), which takes place on October 15-17, 2026 at the Legia Warsaw Municipal Stadium named after Marshal Józef Piłsudski at 3 Łazienkowska Street in Warsaw (hereinafter referred to as the "Fair Grounds").
3. The provisions of the Regulations are addressed to all persons who will be staying on the Fair Grounds during the Fair (hereinafter referred to as "Fair Participants") and other persons staying on the Fair Grounds during its duration; this does not apply to persons appointed by the Organizer to ensure order and safety during the Fair (hereinafter referred to as "Security Service") and persons appointed by the Organizer to assist Participants (hereinafter referred to as "Information Service").
4. The organizer promotes and supports the consumption of alcoholic beverages in a safe and responsible manner.
5. All rights to the Fair's name and logo are reserved by the Organizer. Official programs and merchandise related to the Fair will be sold exclusively on the Fairgrounds or at points of sale authorized by the Organizer.

§ 2 Conditions of participation in the Fair

1. The Fair is a paid event. Entry to the Fair is only possible upon presentation of a valid document entitling you to participate in the event, including: an Entry Ticket, Invitation, Accreditation, Wristband, and/or ID, to a Security Service and/or Information Service employee acting on behalf of the Organizer.
2. The Organizer provides the following types of Entry Tickets:
    1. Single ticket – entitles you to one-time entry to the Fairgrounds,
    2. Pass – entitles you to multiple entries to the Fairgrounds.
3. Each participant of the Fair is obliged to read the Regulations and comply with the provisions contained therein, and participation in the Fair is tantamount to acceptance of the Regulations.
4. Upon entering the Fairgrounds, Participants holding a Pass will receive a wristband entitling them to multiple entries to the Fairgrounds. The wristband is personal and non-transferable. Losing or damaging it will result in a loss of entry to the Fairgrounds. The wristband provided by the Organizer should be worn permanently on the wristband while on the Fairgrounds.

5. Children and minors accompanied by their parents do not require an admission ticket. They may only be on the Fairgrounds when accompanied by an adult. Alcohol consumption is strictly prohibited.
6. The Organizer reserves the right to refuse entry to the Fair Grounds:
    1. a person who is visibly under the influence of alcohol, narcotics, psychotropic substances or other substances with a similar effect,
    2. a person in possession of alcohol not purchased at the Fair Grounds,
    3. a person possessing a weapon or other dangerous objects, explosives, pyrotechnic products, fire-hazardous materials, narcotics or psychotropic substances,
    4. a person behaving aggressively, provocatively or otherwise posing a threat to public safety and order.
7. The assessment of items and their classification as undesirable is the responsibility of the Security Services.

§ 3 Rights and obligations of the participant and persons staying at the Fair premises

1. Participants are entitled to remain on the Fairgrounds during the duration of the Fair, i.e., from the official opening until the official closing of the Fair by the Organizer. The Organizer reserves the right to end the Fair earlier than the published schedule.
2. The Participant is entitled to free movement within the Fairgrounds to which he/she has access, subject to places not intended for Fair participants, in particular the ramp, fences, roofs of buildings, trees, all kinds of masts and entrances to other places, devices or rooms to which only the Security Service, Information Service or representatives of the Fair Organizer and Fair exhibitors have access.
3. The Participant is entitled to unrestricted participation in the Fair, in particular to express his or her emotions, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Regulations and respect for the rights and dignity of third parties.
4. The Participant is entitled to obtain information from the Organizer about the location of the medical point, information points, catering and sanitary facilities and amenities, as well as safety requirements.
5. The participant is entitled to medical assistance.

6. Participants are authorized to use the sanitary facilities only for their intended purpose. Participants are responsible for any damage caused to the sanitary facilities.
7. The Participant is entitled to immediately report to the Organizer information and any claims concerning damages incurred during and on the Fair Grounds, as well as to submit complaints and requests in this respect to the Organizer.
8. Fair participants are obligated to follow the instructions of the Organizer's Security Services, and in the event of intervention by officers of the Police, State Fire Service, Border Guard, Military Police, or other services or bodies, to carry out their instructions. The Organizer's Security Services or Information Services also include other relevant services acting on behalf of the Organizer, if established.
9. It is prohibited to conduct any activity of a political and/or commercial nature, with the exception of exhibitors at the Fair, as well as to conduct fundraising or collect signatures on the Fair Grounds during the Fair without the prior written consent of the Organizer.
10. It is prohibited to display any obscene, offensive, vulgar, racist or degrading slogans or shouts during the Fair, or to provoke or incite to disturb order and safety, or to induce other persons present at the Fair to proclaim such content, e.g. by chanting songs or shouts.
11. It is prohibited to light or fuel fires on the Fair Grounds.
12. Smoking and e-cigarettes are prohibited on the Fairgrounds except in designated areas.
13. It is prohibited to destroy or misappropriate signs and information boards, advertising media, devices and equipment located on the Fair Grounds.
14. It is forbidden to litter the Fair Grounds, Participants are obliged to use the waste bins provided.
15. It is prohibited to occupy places in circulation routes and on evacuation routes, access routes for emergency services, as well as to block hydrants and other devices necessary in the event of a rescue operation or to remove a threat to the safety of the Fair or its participants.
16. The Organizer hereby advises that any Fair Participant or other person on the Fairgrounds will be exposed to constant loud noises that may cause hearing damage. Hearing protection is recommended, especially for children. Strobe lights and pyrotechnic effects may be used during the Fair.

§ 4 Rights and obligations of the Organizer

1. The Organizer is authorized to record the course of the Fair, in particular the conduct of persons, using audio and video recording devices. Materials collected during the recording of the course of the Fair may constitute evidence in appropriate proceedings.
2. The image of persons present at the Fairgrounds may be recorded and subsequently disseminated by the Organizer and/or its collaborators for documentation, reporting, advertising, and promotional purposes only. For advertising and promotional purposes, the image of individual persons will constitute part of a larger whole; it will not constitute the image of an individual person.
3. If an individual's image is recorded, the Participant consents to the publication of this image for purposes related to advertising, marketing, and promotion of the Fair in traditional media and on the Fair Organizer's social media. The Participant agrees not to make any claims in this regard. This consent is not limited in time or territory.
4. The Organizer reserves the right to prohibit bringing or possessing any item on the Fair Grounds if there is a reasonable suspicion that it may be used to commit an act prohibited by law or the Regulations.
5. The Organizer is entitled to remove persons staying at the Fair Grounds who disturb public order or behave contrary to the Regulations.

§ 5 Personal data

1. The controller of your personal data is the Wolny Kraft Association for Polish Craftsmanship, ul. Korotyńskiego 48, m. 109, 02-123 Warsaw, NIP/VAT PL 70 10 999 434, REGON: 387245894 (hereinafter referred to as the Controller). You can contact it by e-mail to: kontakt@wolnykraft.org or by traditional mail to the Controller's registered office address indicated above.
2. The Controller has appointed a person responsible for the protection of personal data, i.e. the Data Protection Inspector, who can be contacted via the e-mail address: kontakt@wolnykraft.org and via traditional mail, at the address of the Controller’s registered office indicated above with the note To the Data Protection Inspector.
3. Personal data will be processed for the following purposes:
    1. implementation of marketing/commercial activities using electronic means of communication (Article 6, paragraph 1, letter a of the GDPR);

2. possible establishment, pursuit or defense against claims – the legal basis for data processing is the necessity of processing to pursue the legitimate interest of the Controller, understood in this case as the possibility of establishing, pursuing or defense against claims (Article 6, paragraph 1, letter f of the GDPR);
3. Implementation of monitoring to ensure security. The legal basis for data processing is the necessity of processing to pursue the Controller's legitimate interest, understood in this case as ensuring the safety and security of persons, areas, and facilities belonging to the Controller (Article 6, paragraph 1, letter f of the GDPR).

4. The period for which the Controller stores data depends on the purpose of processing. Generally, data is stored:
    1. until the statute of limitations for claims expires or
    2. until the legitimate interest of the Administrator is fulfilled or
    3. until the obligation to store personal data resulting from the provisions of generally applicable law expires or
    4. in the scope of data processed as part of the monitoring carried out for a period of 30 days;
    5. within the scope of the consent given, the data will be processed until it is withdrawn, however, the fact of withdrawing consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before the withdrawal of the consent granted.
5. Personal data may be made available to entities authorized under applicable law, in particular institutions authorized to supervise the Controller's activities or institutions authorized to obtain personal data under applicable law. Personal data may be processed by other entities based on personal data processing agreements concluded with the Controller.
6. In connection with the processing of personal data, the data subject has the following rights: access to data, rectification, erasure, restriction of data processing, the right to object to data processing, and the right to data portability. These rights apply in the cases and to the extent permitted by applicable law. In connection with data processing, the data subject also has the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority – the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.
7. The Administrator will not make automated decisions based on personal data, including decisions resulting from profiling.

§ 6 Security
